

TUTOR PROFILES

We will include your tutor profile with your tutor number and other non-personal information to be seen by potential clients on the Personal Tutors website. As can be seen from the examples below, this should be a summary of your main qualifications, teaching or tutoring experience and your approach to tuition.

If it is not obvious from your qualifications, try to mention anything which supports your ability to give tuition in the subjects that you have chosen. Please only mention the subjects we offer and keep your profile relevant to tutoring.

Your profile should not exceed 650 characters/spaces in length in order to correctly display on our website. Please take time and care whilst compiling this self-advertisement, as we have found that prospective pupils are greatly influenced by it.

(Personal Tutors retain the right to abridge or amend profiles to conform with Company policy).

- I am 47 years of age and teaching on a part-time basis at the moment. I have a large range of teaching experience from very young to adult and I can provide references from a number of past pupils. I enjoy teaching and am considered to have a caring approach and I try to make sure that learning takes place in a relaxed but studious situation.
- I am a recent graduate from Manchester University with a degree in Chemistry and am also able to teach Maths and Physics to 'A' level. I have been told that my approach to teaching makes it enjoyable for my students as I am considered patient and very approachable. I am happy to travel up to 15 miles from my home and am currently available evenings and week-ends.
- I am 47 years old and have more than 20 years of teaching experience. My current position is as an SEN co-ordinator for the age range 7-13. I have a wide experience of working with pupils of many different ages, in small groups or on an individual basis, who have learning difficulties. I am able to work at home or in the pupil's home and can travel up to about 8 miles.
- I am a recently retired Head teacher of a Primary School and have more than 35 years experience of teaching of pupils of all ages. Since retiring, I have given private tuition to a number of pupils with excellent results. I always have the highest expectations of pupils and always have had, even when it was fashionable for learning to be more "child centred". This is an approach I have found to pay rich dividends in terms of a pupil's academic and personal development.
- I am 29 years of age and have a first degree and PhD in Biochemistry. I am able to tutor biology and chemistry to 'A' level and beyond and mathematics to 'A' level. I have given tuition to individuals and small groups of students at undergraduate level and offer friendly, relaxed lessons individually, or in groups of up to three people, tailored exactly to what the pupil requires.
- I am 37 years old and as a current Deputy Headteacher am able to offer individual tuition in maths, English and reading. I also specialise in preparing pupils for Independent and Selective Schools. I can offer general education advice and find that my pupils normally make speedy progress towards their goals, whatever they may be. I am an Assistant Examiner for AQA, marking English Literature papers.
- I have a Degree in English from the University of Reading and have tutored the subject up to A level for the past 8 years as well as eleven plus and Common Entrance Maths and English. I am a friendly and supportive person who gets excellent results by making lessons fun as well as informative.
- I am an honours graduate with teaching qualifications and have a great deal of experience in teaching mathematics in both the Independent and State school sectors. I prepare pupils for entrance examinations to Public and Independent schools and SATS for State schools. I also tutor pupils in mathematics GCSE examinations with AQA, OCR and EdExcel examination boards. I provide tutoring services at my home address.
- I have recently graduated from University with a 2.1 Degree in Modern Languages. I studied French and German and I am able to tutor these subjects to A Level. I am now studying for an MA Degree in Translation and Interpreting. I have completed the Student Associates Scheme and my mentor provided me with positive feedback regarding my ability to make material easily understandable to students. I have tutored in France and Austria.
